Discussions

Mr Clarke stated that resolutions were not needed for the opening of new sewer bank accounts as no positions on the Board of Directors had changed.

Mr Schwartz gave a brief explanation of the year end financial statements. Mr Clever inquired about the Service Connection Fees line item. Mr Tenney inquired about where the Forest Park payment had been budgeted. Mr Kavash wanted to know what makes up the unrestricted earnings. Mr Schwartz will get the information to him. Mr Schwartz explained that the year to date actual total should have the debt service monies removed from it.

The 2006 ethics forms were distributed and should be returned by the next meeting

Mr Clarke explained what the Professional Services agreements are

Mr Clarke stated that an Executive Session would be needed to discuss an open litigation matter. He also stated that the closing on the purchase acquisition of the North Wales Sewer system had occurred at the North Wales Borough offices on 01/09/2006 at 9:30 am with Mrs Nagel, Mr Tenney, and Mr Schwartz in attendance. The closing was unremarkable. Mr Rick Schatz was employed by the North Wales Borough and is now an employee of the North Wales Water Authority.

Mr Heydt explained the final payment request from Blooming Glen in the amount of $150,153.03 for the Sumneytown Pk project.

The Board then went into an Executive Session at 6:47 pm and came out at 7:05 pm. The purpose was to discuss an open litigation matter.
